

HOUSE BILL 1986
By Hargrove

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 37, Chapter 1; Title 40, Chapter 14 and Title 40, Chapter 35, relative to court-appointed counsel.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 40-14-103, is amended by designating the current language as subsection “(a)” and by adding the following new language, to be designated as subsection “(b)”:

(b)

(1) A defendant, who is provided with court-appointed counsel, shall be assessed by the court at the time of appointment a nonrefundable administrative fee in the amount of fifty dollars ($50). The administrative fee shall be waived or reduced by the court upon a finding that the defendant lacks financial resources sufficient to pay the fee in such amount. The fee may be increased by the court to an amount not in excess of two hundred dollars ($200) upon a finding that the defendant possesses sufficient financial resources to pay the fee in such increased amount. The administrative fee shall be payable, at the court’s discretion, in a lump sum or in installments; provided, however, the fee shall be paid prior to disposition of the case or within two (2) weeks following appointment of counsel, whichever shall first occur. In the event the defendant does not pay the administrative fee in a timely manner, the fee shall be deducted from the cash bond, if any, posted by the defendant. Prior to disposition of the case, the clerk of the court shall inform the judge whether the administrative fee assessed by the court has been collected. Failure to pay the administrative fee assessed by the court shall not reduce or in any way affect the rendering of services by court-appointed counsel; provided, however, the defendant's willful failure to pay such fee may be considered by the court as an enhancement factor when imposing sentence if the defendant is found guilty of criminal conduct.

(2) The administrative fee shall be separate from and in addition to any other contribution or recoupment assessed pursuant to law for defrayal of costs associated with the provision of court-appointed counsel. The clerk of the court shall retain a commission of five percent (5%) of each dollar of administrative fees collected and shall transmit the remaining ninety-five percent (95%) of each such dollar to the state treasurer for deposit in the state's general fund.

(3) If the administrative fee is not paid prior to disposition of the case, then the fee shall be collected in the same manner as costs are collected.

(4) Each clerk of court, who is responsible for collecting administrative fees pursuant to this section, shall file a quarterly report with the court and with the director of the Tennessee administrative office of the courts. The report shall be filed within forty-five (45) days following conclusion of the quarter and shall indicate the:

(A) Number of defendants for whom the court appointed counsel;

(B) Number of defendants for whom the court waived the administrative fee;

(C) Number of defendants from whom the clerk collected administrative fees;

(D) Total amount of commissions retained by the clerk from such administrative fees; and

(E) Total amount of administrative fees forwarded by the clerk to the state treasurer.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 37-1-126, is amended by adding the following language as a new, appropriately designated subsection:

(1) A child, who is provided with court-appointed counsel, shall be assessed by the court at the time of appointment a nonrefundable administrative fee in the amount of fifty dollars ($50). The administrative fee shall be reduced or waived by the court upon a finding that the child and the child's parents or legal guardians lack financial resources sufficient to pay the fee in such amount. The fee may be increased by the court to an amount not in excess of two hundred dollars ($200) upon a finding that the child or the child's parents or legal guardians possess sufficient financial resources to pay the fee in such increased amount. The administrative fee shall be payable, at the court's discretion, in a lump sum or in installments; provided, however, the fee shall be paid prior to disposition of the case or within two (2) weeks of appointment of counsel, whichever shall first occur. In the event the child or the child's parents or legal guardians do not pay the administrative fee in a timely manner, the fee shall be deducted from the cash bond, if any, posted by or on behalf of the child. Prior to disposition of the case, the clerk of the court shall inform the judge whether the administrative fee has been collected. Failure to pay the administrative fee assessed by the court shall not reduce or in any way affect the rendering of services by court-appointed counsel; provided, however, willful failure to pay such fee may be weighed by the court when determining appropriate disposition of the child if the court finds that the child engaged in delinquent or unruly conduct and is, therefore, in need of treatment and/or rehabilitation.

(2) The administrative fee shall be separate from and in addition to any other contribution or recoupment assessed pursuant to law for defrayal of costs associated with the provision of court-appointed counsel. The clerk of the court shall retain a commission of five percent (5%) of each dollar of administrative fees collected and shall transmit the remaining ninety-five percent (95%) of each such dollar to the state treasurer for deposit in the state's general fund.

(3) If the administrative fee is not paid prior to disposition of the case, then the fee shall be collected in the same manner as costs are collected.

(4) Each clerk of court, who is responsible for collecting administrative fees pursuant to this section, shall file a quarterly report with the director of the Tennessee administrative office of the courts. The report shall be filed within forty-five (45) days following conclusion of the quarter and shall indicate the:

(A) Number of defendants for whom the court appointed counsel;

(B) Number of defendants for whom the court waived the administrative fee;

(C) Number of defendants from whom the clerk collected administrative fees;

(D) Total amount of commissions retained by the clerk from such administrative fees; and

(E) Total amount of administrative fees forwarded by the clerk to the state treasurer.

SECTION 4.
